OUR THANKS

To all of our supporters who attended this event. We hope that you had a fun and enjoyable evening of great music, food, and friends.

To Fort Calgary for providing the wonderful venue and menu.

To St. John's Music for providing the Clavinova Digital Piano.

To all of the silent auction donors and bidders.

And lastly to the singers, for their ongoing dedication and commitment to creating fine choral music.

All money raised from tonight's fundraiser will go into the Firebird Chamber Singers coffers and will be used to produce the final concert of the year, "Voice of the Elements", scheduled for the second week of June. Your support will also allow the choir to embark on an even more successful second year of programming in the fall.

D A N C E

At the conclusion of the silent auction Disc Jockey RMG will be providing us with some dance music. Feel free to let your hair down and head to the dance floor with the Firebird Chamber Singers!
