

Cody Obst presents...

CONCERTS WITH COMMENTARY

2005-2006

The Piano Sonata through the Ages
Haydn, Beethoven, Ravel and Schulhoff
Friday November 18th, 2005 at 8 PM

The French Masters
Chopin, Debussy, Faure, Poulenc, and Satie
Tuesday February 7th, 2006 at 8 PM

German Art Song:
with Toronto soprano Lydia Skourides
the songs of Mozart, Mahler, Schubert, Schumann, and Strauss Thursday March 23rd, 2006 at 8 PM

Lisztomania: Behind the Man and his Music an entire concert devoted to the most famous concert pianist to ever live!
Wednesday May 17th, 2006 at 8 PM

Lyric soprano, Lydia Skourides, completed her Bachelor's in Voice Performance at Brandon University under the direction of Sylvia Richardson. While in Brandon, Miss Skourides was a prizewinner in the Brandon University Annual Scholarship Competition, won the Brandon University Concerto Competition, and the Brandon Festival of the Arts Rose Bowl. This past year she completed a Master's in Opera Performance at McGill University in Montreal under the direction of Winston Purdy. During her Master's she had the opportunity to perform in Poulenc's one-woman opera, La Voix Humaine, as well as Rosalinde in Strauss' Die Fledermaus.

T i c k e t s
available at St. Giles Church, Rideau Music (downtown), or Classics Plus by Subscription
$50 adult
$40 senior
$20 student/child

at the Door
$15 adult/senior
$5 student/child

concerts at St. Giles Presbyterian Church 1102 23rd Ave NW for more information contact concerts.with.commentary@gmail.com or call 289-6862